1. About GuildSuper

GuildSuper's mission is to help you get the most from your super, keeping things simple and helping you achieve the best possible lifestyle once you retire. GuildSuper has a particular focus on the financial wellbeing of women and their families.

GuildSuper is part of the Guild Retirement Fund ('Fund'), from which the Trustee is authorised to offer a MySuper product (MySuper Lifecycle Investment Strategy) that can accept Superannuation Guarantee

(SG) contributions from employers. Importantly, GuildSuper can accept contributions on your behalf, regardless of who you work for, so you can stay with us for your working life and into retirement.

The investment options in the MySuper product are determined by a member's age. GuildSuper also offers the MyMix Solution, which is a choice of eight investment options including diversified and single asset class options.

The latest Product Dashboards for the Fund are available at guildsuper.com.au/dashboard. Other important information about the Fund and the Trustee, including Trustee and Executive Officer remuneration, is provided on our website under the About Us section.

2. How super works

Super is a long-term savings vehicle which is, in part, compulsory. It helps you save money while you are working, so you have enough to support your lifestyle when you retire. There are different types of contributions that can be made to your super so that it can be invested and then used to replace your salary in retirement.

This diagram summarises how a super account works:

Money in	+ Any positive investment earnings	- Deductions	= Your account balance
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Employer contributions• Additional contributions• Rollovers from other funds• Government payments	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Any positive net earnings from the investments in your super account (see section 5)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Fees (see section 6)• Taxes (see section 7)• Insurance costs (see section 8)• Any negative net earnings

Employer contributions: These include SG contributions, which are compulsory under Government legislation. Generally, if you are working and earning $450 or more a month, your employer must make contributions equal to 10% of your ordinary time earnings into a super fund for you. You can usually choose the super fund where you would like SG contributions to be made.

Additional contributions:

- Subject to Government limitations, you can make extra voluntary or personal contributions into your super from your take-home pay. Voluntary or personal contributions you make, for which you do not claim a tax deduction, are classified as non-concessional contributions.

- If you make non-concessional contributions under the non-concessional contributions cap during a financial year, and earn less than a limit set by the Government, then you may be eligible for a bonus super contribution called the Super co-contribution for that year.
- You can also make voluntary contributions for which you can claim a tax deduction, which are classified as Concessional contributions.

Information on how super is taxed is set out in Section 7 of this PDS.

You can also ask your employer to make extra contributions from your before-tax salary into your account. These employer contributions are called Salary Sacrifice contributions. Salary Sacrifice contributions are generally classified as Concessional contributions.

Tax incentives: The Government wants Australians to help pay for their own retirement, so they provide tax incentives to encourage us to save through super.

Rollovers from other funds: You can combine your super into one account by transferring your super in other Australian super funds (if you have any) into your GuildSuper account.

Investment earnings: Your super is invested and any net earnings (which may be positive or negative) are allocated to your account.

Accessing your super

There are rules that restrict when you can withdraw your super balance. Generally, you cannot access your super until you reach a minimum age (called your preservation age) and meet a condition of release.

4. Risks of super

All investments carry risk and super is no different. How much risk depends on several factors, an important one being the types of assets you are invested in. Asset types include cash, bonds, shares and property. Each asset type (and consequently each investment strategy, depending on assets making up the strategy) has a different level of risk and potential of receiving a negative return. Those assets with the highest expected return over the long term (like shares) also have the greatest chance (risk) of producing a negative return in the short term.

The significant risks relevant to GuildSuper include investment risks such as market risk, inflation risk, liquidity risk, currency risk and interest rate risk.

When investing your super, it is important to understand that super is a long-term investment that may be invested for more than 30 years. Over this time:

- while super funds aim to achieve their investment objectives for each investment option, returns will vary and superannuation investors may lose some of their money. Investment returns cannot be guaranteed.
- the value of investments will go up and down and over some periods your account balance may go down.
- past returns should not be used to predict future performance.
- you may not save enough through your super savings to pay for the retirement lifestyle you want, particularly if you rely solely on your employer's contributions, and

- laws affecting superannuation may change.

What's right for you (including your level of comfort with risk) may depend on your age, how long until you retire, how and where you hold other investments, and how comfortable you are with the possibility of your account balance going down temporarily in some years.

SUPERSUPER™ program

EonX Services Pty Ltd and PBC Nominees Pty Ltd bears all risk for this program and GuildSuper has no involvement in the ongoing management and operation of the provider or this program.

5. How we invest your money

When you join GuildSuper, your super will be invested in the MySuper product, unless you make an investment choice. The MySuper product is made up of three lifestage investment options – Building, Growing and Consolidating. Your super contributions will be invested in the lifestage option that suits your age.

As you get older, your investments will automatically be adjusted to reduce the level of investment risk, making your investments more stable as you approach retirement. However, you may want to consider the likely investment return, risk and your investment timeframe when choosing to remain in the MySuper product or choosing other investment options.

With the MySuper product, your age is determined at 1 July each year based on your age next birthday. Changes to your investment options are made on 1 July not on your birthday.

6. Fees and costs

CONSUMER ADVISORY WARNING

Did you know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs. You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.¹

To find out more: If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

¹ It is a requirement that this text is included in all PDSs. Our fees are set at a competitive level that still allows us to effectively manage the Fund, and as such our fees are not negotiable.

6. Fees and costs continued

² Insurance fees may also apply. Refer to the 'Additional Explanation of Fees and Costs' in the How GuildSuper Works Guide available on our website.

3% cap on fees for balances less than $6,000

If your account balance is less than $6,000 at the end of the financial year, or if you leave GuildSuper, the total of combined administration fees, investment fees and indirect costs charged to you is capped at 3% of your account balance for the year (or the period until you left). Any amount charged above the cap will be refunded.

How fees and other costs are charged to you

Fees and other costs are either paid directly from your account or deducted from investment returns before or after the returns from investments have been determined.

Further information about fees and other costs

GuildSuper may change the level of fees and other costs without your consent. If this happens we will notify you at least 30 days before any increase that is a material change, where required by law. The estimated indirect cost ratios may vary from year to year because indirect costs may change from year to year. You may be notified of increases in estimated indirect cost ratios after they occur.

Some of the fees and other costs for other available investment options are different to those shown in the adjacent table. Entry fees and exit fees cannot be charged. Refer to the important information about fees and other costs in the Investment Guide and How GuildSuper Works Guide available on our website.

7. How super is taxed

Super is taxed in a number of ways

Generally, GuildSuper will deduct the tax that is payable on your superannuation contributions or benefits and pay it directly to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). In some cases you may be liable to pay tax in relation to superannuation contributions directly to the ATO.

Tax on contributions: For a typical member, the tax rates on money going into your account will be as follows:

- Concessional contributions, such as SG, salary sacrifice or tax deductible personal contributions, are usually taxed at 15%. A higher rate of tax applies to high income earners.
- Non-concessional contributions, such as personal or spouse contributions that are not tax deductible, are usually not taxed.

There are limits to the concessional and non-concessional contributions that can be made to your superannuation each year.

If contributions exceed the applicable limits, then you may be taxed at a higher rate.

You can claim a tax deduction on any personal contributions you make into your super (subject to certain conditions). If you do then those contributions will be treated as concessional contributions, be subject to the concessional (before-tax) contributions cap and be taxed at 15%.

Tax on investment earnings: Investment earnings are generally taxed at a rate of 15%, however offsets (tax credits and rebates) apply which may reduce the effective tax rate.

Tax on withdrawals: Withdrawals from your account may be taxed if you are under age 60. Once you turn 60, withdrawals are generally tax-free.

How your Tax File Number (TFN) is used:

You should provide us with your TFN when you join GuildSuper. If you or your employer do not supply us with your TFN, we are required under law to reject personal contributions (including SUPERSUPER contributions) and deduct additional tax from your concessional contributions.

Not providing your TFN may also make finding any lost superannuation you have more difficult.

This is a summary only of key taxation rules. There is further information about taxes relating to contributions and benefits in the How GuildSuper Works Guide at guildsuper.com.au/pds. Taxation rules are complex and their impact depends on your personal circumstances. Tax rules are subject to frequent changes. You should refer to the ATO website (ato.gov.au) for up to date information or consult a financial adviser.

You should read the important information about TFNs in the How GuildSuper Works Guide at guildsuper.com.au/pds before making a decision. The material relating to TFNs may change between the time you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

8. Insurance in your super

GuildSuper offers three types of insurance cover:

- Death – provides a lump sum payment in the event of your death or if you are diagnosed with a terminal illness and have less than 24 months to live.
- Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) – provides a lump-sum payment in the event you suffer a permanent disability.
- Income Protection (IP) – provides regular income payments if you are temporarily unable to work due to sickness or injury.

Default insurance cover: After you join GuildSuper and your account balance reaches $6,000, you may automatically receive a default number of Death, TPD and IP units of cover if you are aged between 25 and 70 and meet other eligibility criteria. If you meet these eligibility criteria then the cost of this cover will be deducted from your account, unless you decide to cancel your cover. If you are under age 25 or your account balance is less than $6,000, you may still opt-in to have insurance cover upon joining GuildSuper (conditions apply).

Refer to the table on the next page for the type of default cover, number of units and value of each unit of cover applicable to each age.

Default cover is not tailored to your individual circumstances and you should assess its suitability. Contact GuildSuper if you wish to change or opt-out of default insurance cover.

Insurance cover ceases in certain circumstances and other conditions apply. You should read the Insurance Guide for further information as to the circumstances and conditions of when insurance cover may cease.

Your occupation and insurance costs:

There are costs associated with insurance cover which you are responsible for paying by way of deductions from your GuildSuper account. The cost of Default cover depends on your age and your Occupational Classification (Standard (equivalent to Light-blue Collar), White Collar or Professional) and includes costs incurred by the Trustee in relation to the provision of the insurance.

The cost of Default cover for the Standard Occupational Classification is shown on the next page. If you or your employer do not provide us with the correct details of your occupation, then you will be classified as Standard and you may pay more than you need to for your insurance cover. Information about the cost per unit for each type of Default cover is shown in the Insurance Guide.

If you apply for additional cover, then the costs will be calculated in accordance with insurance fee tables shown in the Insurance Guide.

Insurance Boost: Eligible members (who have automatically received but not reduced Default cover) can apply for up to double the number of Death, TPD and/or IP units of cover without having to provide full health information. The cost of insurance will be adjusted for the higher levels of cover. To apply, complete the Insurance Boost form available on our website, answer some limited health questions and return to GuildSuper within three months of your Default cover commencing. Conditions apply.

Life Events Top-Up: Specific changes in your life allow you to request extra Death, TPD and/or IP cover (subject to eligibility criteria), in addition to any cover you have, without having to provide health information.

The cost of insurance will be adjusted for the higher levels of cover. To apply, complete the Life Events Top-Up form available on our website. Conditions apply.

Other insurance options: Eligible GuildSuper members can:

- transfer insurance cover from any other super fund or insurance provider (exclusions for certain types of insurance and maximum limits apply). To apply, complete the Insurance Transfer form available on our website. The cost of insurance will be adjusted for higher levels of cover.
- choose from either Unitised cover or Fixed cover amounts for your Death and TPD. To apply for fixed cover, complete the Application for Insurance available on our website (some health information will be required). Different insurance costs apply to fixed cover.

The Trustee receives an insurance administration fee of 6% of the insurance premium deducted from your account. This fee covers the costs incurred by the Trustee in relation to the provision of insurance to members (i.e. associated with administering the insurance arrangement).

Want more cover?

If you have no cover or would like additional cover, you can apply at any time for Death, TPD and/or IP cover (subject to eligibility criteria and maximum benefit limits). You can also apply to reduce the IP cover waiting period to either 30 or 60 days or increase the maximum Benefit Period to age 65.

To apply, complete the Application for Insurance available on our website. You will have to provide health information with your application. Additional insurance costs will apply.

Opting out or reducing your cover

You can opt-out or reduce your cover at any time. Complete the Reduce or Cancel Your Insurance Cover form available on our website. Any change to your cover will start from the date we receive your valid request.

To opt-out of your Default cover without any insurance costs being incurred, you must notify us in writing, within 60 days of your default insurance cover commencing, that you would like the cancellation of cover backdated to the date cover otherwise started.

Unless you opt-out of any Default cover, or cease to be eligible to receive Default cover, the cost of the cover will be deducted from your account.

Paying insurance benefits: If you make an insurance claim, GuildSuper and the Insurer will determine whether you are entitled to be paid based on the policy terms, the Fund's rules and the law.

You should read the important information about insurance in the Insurance Guide, including eligibility criteria, commencement of cover, cessation of cover, changing your cover, the level and type of optional cover available, the cost of cover depending on your circumstances, conditions, exclusions and other significant information relating to insurance before deciding whether the insurance is appropriate or whether to apply for insurance. Refer to the Insurance Guide for information on your entitlement to insurance cover or payment of an insured benefit.

Should your account become inactive (i.e. not receive any contributions or rollovers) for a continuous period of 16 months or more it is possible that your insurance benefits may be cancelled. Please refer to the Insurance Guide for full details.

 You should read the important information about insurance in the Insurance Guide at guildsuper.com.au/pds before making a decision. The material relating to insurance may change between the time you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

9. How to open an account

There are two easy ways to open a GuildSuper account:

OPTION 1: When you choose to join

1. Read this PDS and the important information in the Guides referred to in this PDS.
2. Complete the Membership Application available on our website.

Once your membership account is established, you can then start to make contributions. You can also request that your employer contributes into your account by providing a completed Choice of Superannuation Fund form to your employer. Your account balance will be invested in the MySuper product and you may have default insurance cover, if employer contributions are made to your account within a specified timeframe and you are eligible. If you want to make an investment choice (buy/sell spreads may apply) or change insurance cover, you can do so by logging into your account via GuildSuper online.

OPTION 2: When your employer has joined you

1. An account will be created for you if your employer makes a super contribution for you. The contribution will be invested in the MySuper product and you will have default insurance cover, if eligible.
2. Read this PDS (and the important information in the Guides referred to in this PDS), and if you want to make an investment choice (buy/sell spreads will apply) and/or change your insurance, you can do so by logging into your account via GuildSuper online.

Welcome to GuildSuper: Once your account is set up you will receive a Welcome communication with your membership details and information about SUPERSUPER. The personal information (including account details), you or your employer provide in relation to your account, on or after you become a member, is protected. Refer to the Privacy Policy on guildsuper.com.au/privacy

Cooling-off period: A cooling-off period only applies if you joined the Fund under Option 1. If you advise us in writing within 20 days from the date of the communication you receive confirming your membership that you do not wish to be part of GuildSuper, we will direct your money to an eligible fund (subject to Government preservation rules) and no fees will be deducted directly from your account. However, the amount returned may be adjusted for any tax payable or unit price movements. In some circumstances, (for example, if you have exercised a right or power in relation to this product) the cooling off period will not apply.

 You should read the important information about privacy in the How GuildSuper Works Guide at guildsuper.com.au/pds before making a decision. The material about privacy in the How GuildSuper Works Guide may change between the time you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.
